GROUPS FOR BUSY PEOPLE

Vocational leaders' groups affiliated with Global Interaction

Compass groups bring business and vocational leaders together for:

- mutual support, personal and professional encouragement,
- interaction in a supportive, Jesus-focussed environment,
- hands-on involvement with Global Interaction through professional advice, finance, prayer support and visits

Groups meet once a month, often taking the opportunity to hear a Global Interaction speaker or visiting the workplace of a fellow Compass member to share the successes and problems of the workplace. Each group takes a special interest in one of the people groups served by Global Interaction staff overseas.

Members make a commitment to their Compass group in terms of time, prayer, finance and active interest in the chosen people group.
